TELSTAR WINS CLASS "C" STATE TITLE

The Telstar harriers amassed just 55 points at the Riverside Golf Course in Portland last Saturday to win their second Class "C" State Championship. Maranacook was second with 94, and Dirigo third with 121.

Led by Pat Friel in seventh, the other Telstar positions were eighth, Mike Friel; 11th, John Clukey; 13th, Steve Morrill; 16th, and 58th, Kurt Brown. An outstanding start by the whole team secured good front running positions early in the race and virtually clinched the victory by the mid-way point. BEARS VOLUNTEERS SPEAK AT MONDAY FORESTRY MEETING

On important phase of the White Mountain National Forest Service is to promote safety within the structure of its system. One day a month is used for a safety program of a wide variety of subjects presented in various ways.

This past Monday, volunteers Mrs. Arlene Greenleaf and Mrs. Lynn Bristol represented the Bethel Emergency Ambulance Rescue unit known as BEARS who through their vast amount of knowledge put on a most informative safety program for the Evans Notch Ranger District personnel.

A lengthy explanation was given on the courses that have been taken by volunteers and how they are used in their work on various calls. Mrs. Greenleaf outlined courses that the public could take and where, some of which the forestry personnel will be taking in the near future. To be an ambulance attendant you need the Advanced First Aid Course and the CPR course. This is required by State Law. Both of these courses are given in the area.

They used actual accident and ambulance calls in explaining what was done and what to do in case of an emergency. Cold weather problems and solutions were brought out during this discussion.

After a question and answer period the Rescue Unit vehicle was shown and the attendees explained the equipment and in what cases to use it.

The Bethel area is very fortunate in having this Rescue Unit manned by volunteers 24 hours a day. Most volunteers would be greatly appreciated to learn the work of the ones now available.

BLOOD DONORS CLINIC NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

The Maine Red Cross Blood Program needs your support. In Maine hospitals alone, over 220 pints of blood are used every day, much of it for heart surgery patients at Maine Medical Center, Portland.

There is no substitute for blood; it cannot be synthetically produced, so must come from human donors. Through careful testing and processing by the Red Cross, up to four hospital patients can benefit from each pint of blood donated. Blood screening, processing and distribution by this organization is licensed by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, thus assuring recipients of a pure and proper blood component for their specific needs.

The Bloodmobile will be in Bethel at the Gould Academy gymnasium on Monday, Nov. 14, from 1 to 7 p. m. Anyone not already contacted by a Red Cross worker and wishing to volunteer as a helper or a donor please call Mrs. Frances Harding at 824-2730. Bethel's quota is 120 pints, a very small share of the thousands of units needed in Maine each year.

Item 1: Results of our appeal for wrecked cars has yielded several items. Thanks to all of you who responded. Before the show flies there will be a training session for all BEARS, learning to use the newly acquired 10-ton Porta Power Extrication Tool.

Item 2: Last week end, Florence Merrill, Don Morin, Esther Sweetser, and Arlene Greenleaf attended an extrication course in Dixfield. Arlene was granted her instructor's certificate and will be teaching the course sometime in the spring. She is very busy these days, taking night courses and coaching at Telstar, besides pulling ambulance duty.

Item 3: There have been one hundred thirty-six ambulance calls so far this year. Despite anything you may have heard, there is still a dire need for more volunteers to run the ambulance service on a 24-hour basis. Please re-evaluate your schedule and try to find the time to give 12 hours a month to your ambulance. If we had 120 volunteers, that's all each of us would be responsible for—one 12-hour shift per month. Please contact Arlene (824-2744), Lyn (4-2233), and get involved.

Item 4: Lyn will be approaching all the schools next month, to have the children take home and return to the school a survey sheet. This will provide the ambulance dispatchers with specific information about each household in the area covered by the Bethel Ambulance. Be on the lookout.

Smoke Alarms

Every one's talking about something that's sweeping the country and being featured in newspapers, magazines, and on radio and television. To look at one, a person might wonder what the excitement is all about, because it's rather small and unobtrusive. But fire protection and public safety officials are hoping every dwelling will have one or more installed.

It's called a smoke alarm, and it offers a measure of protection out of all proportion to its low cost, efficiency, and ease of installation. Considered the best form of fire warning for a family, a smoke alarm "discovers" a fire in its earliest stages. Smoke will be evident from a fire much sooner than heat, and will trigger the alarm waking sleeping occupants.

Two types of alarms are available. One is called the ionization detector and the other the photoelectric detector. Information on which to use and where to install them can be obtained from fire protection groups, fire departments, and consumer organizations. BEARS VOLUNTEERS SPEAK AT MONDAY FORESTRY MEETING

On important phase of the White Mountain National Forest Service is to promote safety within the structure of its system. One day a month is used for a safety program of a wide variety of subjects presented in various ways.

This past Monday, volunteers Mrs. Arlene Greenleaf and Mrs. Lynn Bristol represented the Bethel Emergency Ambulance Rescue unit known as BEARS who through their vast amount of knowledge put on a most informative safety program for the Evans Notch Ranger District personnel.

A lengthy explanation was given on the courses that have been taken by volunteers and how they are used in their work on various calls. Mrs. Greenleaf outlined courses that the public could take and where, some of which the forestry personnel will be taking in the near future. To be an ambulance attendant you need the Advanced First Aid Course and the CPR course. This is required by State Law. Both of these courses are given in the area.

They used actual accident and ambulance calls in explaining what was done and what to do in case of an emergency. Cold weather problems and solutions were brought out during this discussion.

After a question and answer period the Rescue Unit vehicle was shown and the attendants explained the equipment and in what cases to use it.

The Bethel area is very fortunate in having this Rescue Unit manned by volunteers 24 hours a day. More volunteers would be greatly appreciated to lessen the work of the ones now available.

BLOOD DONORS CLINIC NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

The Maine Red Cross Blood Program needs your support. In Maine hospitals alone, over 220 pints of blood are used every day, much of it for heart surgery patients at Maine Medical Center, Portland.

There is no substitute for blood; it cannot be synthetically produced, so must come from human donors. Through careful testing and processing by the Red Cross, up to four hospital patients can benefit from each pint of blood donated. Blood screening, processing and distribution by this organization is licensed by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, thus assuring recipients of a pure and proper blood component for their specific needs.

The Bloodmobile will be in Bethel at the Gould Academy Gymnasium on Monday, Nov. 14, from 1 to 7 p.m. Anyone not already contacted by a Red Cross worker and wishing to volunteer as a helper or a donor please call Mrs. Frances Harding at 824-2730. Bethel's quota is 120 pints, a very small share of the thousands of units needed in Maine each year.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

October, our in between month, is on its way out. It lies between summer and winter, retaining some of the life and glory of the former and foretells a bit of the gloom of the season yet to come. But this week it gave us fantastic weather. The rising sun blazed through the misty air while a yellowish smoky haze filled the atmosphere. The wind was soft and low. The gorgeous tints were gone, for autumn rains had washed them out to float on the streams or to lie beneath the trees. Orange, yellow, scarlet, all changed to one melancholy russet tone.

In spite of a very busy week, I took time one afternoon to visit the ledges. I walked up the Road and was amazed at the growth of shrubs and blackberry bushes in so short a time. After reaching the first ridge, I heard a partridge drum a warning and listened to the saucy red squirrel churr. Here, I turned right and faced the clouds like cotton candy, slowly climbing into the burnished blue above peaceful Patch Mountain. Indian summer, threw her warmth all around warmed with summer's afterglow.

I paused by a big rock, just right for leaning, and listened to the rustle of the leaves as the breeze and squirrels played among them. Then again I climbed through the hemlocks, picked up a cone or two and crossed two small brooks smothered in leaves, yet gurgling their way to the pond.

Under an oak I stopped to pick acorns in brown tam-o'shanter.

Just ahead now stood one lonely stalk of milkweed. Its cluster of summer flowers replaced by pods and seedlings. They were opening beneath the warm sun and a few little parachutes of ripened seeds were ready to sink new roots, to its wonders of life.

Winding round a low hill, where stood a few birches, I came to "my" ledge. I sat down where I could see overhead the sky of deep blue. Below lay the pond, a mirror, reflecting its every side. I noticed that the columbine plants were growing from the seeds which I put there on one of my visits.

The sunshine felt of greater substance, thicker, like melted butter or was it my imagination after so many wet, cold days recently?

Something broke the surface of the water, possibly for a dragonfly, the last survivor of the summer.

I looked at the work of autumn. It had dipped its cloth in cool water and washed the faces and lofty foreheads of the mountains.

I took a couple of pictures and took a last look at the diamonds on the water. As I rose to return home, I heard a rustling of leaves behind me then a bark; a strange, stray black dog, big too! Needless to say he startled me as probably I did him. I invited him to go his way which he did. In all

BAKERS HONORED ON 50th ANNIVERSARY

An anniversary open house at the American Legion Hall in Bethel marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Baker, formerly of Paradise Street, now of West Newfield, on Oct. 15.

Miss Paula Corriveau presented an orchid corsage to her grandmother and a carnation boutonniere to her grandfather. Mr. and Mrs. Baker received gifts and a money tree. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were married in Bethel on Oct. 17, 1927, by Rev. L. A. Edwards. The three tier cake was made by their daughter, Mrs. Jean (Pauline) Corriveau, Berlin, N. H. The party was given by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Yves (Al-

CUB SCOUTS ARE OFF TO A SUPER START

On Saturday the beautiful weather brought forth a multitude of Cubs and their families for a hike that was postponed from one of those rainy weekends. Fifty five people of all ages and size took advantage of the bright clear weather to walk to the Roost in Evans Notch. Counted among the number were 32 Cubs, 19 parents and four other children. Many of the Cubs spent the hike dashing from the front of the group back to the tail enders and back again, much to the discouragement of some trail weary parents. The views from the top made the whole trip well worth while and a huge success. Many thanks to all those who drove their cars and hiked. With continued support like this Pack 566 will have its finest year.

At the Tuesday Pack meeting, the following Webelos awards were made by Cubmaster Al Barth, Sportsman, Mike McGuire, Bruce Barth, Brandon Salway, Scott Brown, Jon Ness, Keith Wright, Brent Bachelder, Todd Kellogg and Scott Dyer. Aquanaut: Bruce Barth, Mike McGuire and Brandon Salway. Dave Salway is the Webelos leader and he has his group going to active and enthusiastic. New Cub Scouts who earned their Bobcat badges were: Brian Kellogg, Alec Newell, Chris and Kevin Powell, Den 2; Lester Cole, Richard Sprague, Scott Stevens, Ernie Mason and

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST

"Let your fingers do the walking," the telephone yellow pages say—Our newspaper carries "ads" for services—sales and various notices including a lovely column written by a lady in Greenwood City.

So, like the above we can walk with Jesus Christ, through the Holy Bible, asking Him for guidance in considering His Word.

We can envision God's plan for our lives as He desires each of us to conform to His image: (Colossians 3:10). We learn to trust in Him for our every day needs: Isaiah 28:4—"Trust ye in the Lord forever: for in the Lord Jehovah is our ever lasting strength". He teaches us how to pray, for example: Luke 11:1 through 4; to pray for our daily bread, to ask for forgiveness. The disciples learned to pray for everything; before starting the day—even blanketing Him at days end. In Romans 8:26—He helps us in our prayers "with groanings which cannot be uttered."

The Holy Bible is a complete Book for our lives, it tells us in Titus 2:13 of our risen Saviour Jesus Christ sitting now at the right hand of God. It also tells us of the Holy Spirit who wants so much to live in the hearts of men, women, boys and girls.

Therefore, beloved, let us turn to the Bible—let Jesus Christ mold our lives that we might love Him who first loved us. I John 4:19.

SCHOOL FUNDING IN M. S. A. D. #44 AND THE UNIFORM PROPERTY TAX

by Kenneth Smith, Superintendent of Schools

Numerous citizens in our District have asked the question, "What will happen to my taxes if the Uniform Property Tax is repealed?" No one can answer the question because only the Legislature can decide the adjustments that would be made in the raising of tax dollars and the distribution of educational subsidies.

The following information is provided so that you will have some of the facts:

First, whereas the petition to repeal also recommends that the State should continue to pay for 50% of all education costs one can only assume some replacement would be found. Overall State aid in 1973-74 was less than 40% while the 1977-78 State aid based on appropriations is 52.4% of the basic education allocation.

Second, if the Uniform Property Tax is repealed, the 10th Legislature will then be faced with the need to take action in the second regular session 1) to replace the revenues which would be lost as a result of the repeal (approximately $10.6 million) 2) to modify existing Statutes relating to the distribution of State aid, or 3) some combination of changes affecting both revenue and distribution of State aid to education.

Third, and perhaps most important to S. A. D. #44 taxpayers is the simple fact that we receive more from the State through the Uniform Property Tax than we pay to the State. We are a receiving District.

*Includes basic allocations, Uniform Property Tax, and maximum State share.

Since the adoption of the Uniform Property Tax, school taxes in the State have increased 23.17% over a four year period, while school costs were going up approximately 43% in the same time period. This represents an average property tax increase for school purposes of 5.8% per year. Some of the sharp increases in school taxes are the result of rapid changes in state valuation of the city or town.

Of the 497 odd municipalities, only 59 are pay-in communities with Wisconsin paying approximately 43% of the total contribution.

CAPSULE DESCRIPTION OF THE AMENDED "SCHOOL FINANCE ACT OF 1974"

Each year, the Legislature determines a "basic education allocation" which serves as the basis for subsidy reimbursement to each administrative unit. The costs which make up the basic education allocation are:

- In the year immediately prior to distribution of funds:
 - Elementary operating costs.
 - Secondary operating costs.
 - 90% of the costs of special education programs operated by the unit.
 - 90% of the costs of vocational education.
 - 90% of the costs of operating school buses.
 - The costs of school bus purchases.
 - The costs of the insured value factor portion of tuition and costs of approved leases.
- In the year of distribution of funds:
 - 90% of the costs of special education tuition.
 - All debt service on approved school construction.

Each year the Legislature sets a uniform property tax that will produce no more than half of the total basic education costs, the other portion to be financed from state sales and income taxes. (In 1977-78 the uniform tax was set at 11.5 mills or 47.6% of the basic education allocation.)

Additionally, the Legislature appropriates funds for subsidy adjustments (1) for unusual enrollment increases or decreases within units, (2) to compensate for high costs associated with geographic isolation, and (3) to ensure that small administrative units have sufficient funds to operate current programs.

The Legislature also appropriates funds to guarantee each school unit a maximum return of $115 per pupil when an optional 2 mills are voted by local school units.

If the uniform property tax raised by a unit on its state assessed valuation of property is less than the unit's basic education allocation, the State pays the unit the difference.

If the uniform tax is greater than the unit's allocation, the unit sends the excess to the State.

The uniform tax is made available by municipalities to school officials on a monthly basis, and state aid is paid monthly

YOUR BACK & YOUR HEALTH

Stephen Garbarini, D. C.

Conditioning for skiing

There are three general physical qualities required of good skiers. They all have an effect on circulatory endurance, well conditioned muscles, and a high degree of flexibility.

Running, swimming or skipping are not only build endurance but also condition the legs. Be sure to ease into this or any other exercises. Start slowly and gradually increase the distance or repetitions.

Further leg muscle conditioning can be done through deep knee bends, especially while holding weights. Push-ups and pull-ups help build the arm and shoulder muscles. Weight lifting also is very beneficial for arms, shoulders and legs.

Before starting flexibility exercises, get a chiropractic examination to be sure your back is ready for the program. Leg and shoulder exercises consist of lying flat on back and crossing legs over opposite leg and touching floor with toes is very good.

Another is the overhead curl. Lie flat on your back and raise legs and hips back and raise until toes touch the floor.

To stretch hamstrings, sit on floor with legs straight. Reach forward and touch toes with your fingers. Hold toes for five seconds and return to the beginning position.

These are just a few of the many you can do, but they'll pay off in extra dividends of skiing enjoyment.

MAINE GEMS SUBJECT OF O.C.M.G.A. NOV. 9 MEETING

James Vose, President of the Maine Retail Jewelers Association, will talk about "Maine Gems" at the Nov. 9 meeting of the Oxford County Mineral and Gem Association.

Vose is known as a crusader whose aim is to promote worldwide recognition of the remarkable qualities of Maine tourmaline. Some authorities don't need any further convincing. John Sinkankas, author of the highly respected "Gemstones of North America," says flatly: "The apple-green tourmalines found at Newry are by far the best in the world," and adds: "An astoundingly high percentage of all pink Maine tourmaline is flawless."

For them, you could cut many stones up to sizes of 100 carats. Other geologists, while conceding the beauty of the green gems from Newry, contend that Newry's raspberry red tourmaline is most spectacular of all. Regardless of color preferences, Vose aims to persuade one and all to associate the word "tourmaline" always with Maine, instead of Brazil.

The Oxford County Mineral and Gem Association meets on the second Wednesday of each month at the Moses Mason House in Bethel. President Lewis Marcotte of Oxford, says that at the Nov. 9 meeting, the business agenda will be held to a minimum owing to the special privilege of hearing from James Vose. Visitors are always welcome to O.C.M.G.A. meetings and this promises to be a particularly interesting one. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

WESTERN ME. MANAGEMENT CLUB TO MEET NOV. 7 IN SOUTH PARIS

The Western Maine Management Club will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, Nov. 7, at 6:30 p.m. at the Country Way Restaurant in South Paris.

The program for the evening will include a dinner followed by guest speaker, Phillip H. McManis, an Industrial Safety Consultant. His presentation will be the Supervisor's Role in Improving Industrial Safety.

REP. COHEN TO SPEAK AT EXTENSION MEETING NOV. 11

Congressman William Cohen will address the joint annual meeting of Oxford County Extension Association and 4-H Leaders Association at the Norway Universalist Church on Friday, Nov. 11, 1977 at 7:30 p.m.

Congressman Cohen is a candidate for the U. S. Senate seat now held by Senator William Hathaway.

Garbo and Jillian of the Celebration Mime Theatre, are also featured on the program. Garbo and Jillian are well known for their Downtown Portland T.V. comedial and numerous performances throughout Maine with the Mime Theatre.

Brief business meetings and recognition awards will precede and light refreshments will be served following the program.

There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend.

PARENTS NIGHT HELD AT TELSTAR MIDDLE SCHOOL

The Telstar Middle School held parents night last Thursday with approximately 150 parents present. Middle School Principal Walter Phillips addressed the assembled parents in the auditorium in opening ceremonies, explaining goals of the school system, especially in the field of a coordinated curriculum so that a student in advancing would have an orderly transition from one grade to another.

Teachers held approximately 10-minute sessions with parents, explaining the subject material of each class in which they taught, with parents acting the student role in a simulated school day in an abbreviated time period. As an illustration the seventh grade students had set up an exhibit of an electrical battery charger in operation in its bare essentials.

TELSTAR GIRLS ENTER W. MAINE FINALS WITH FIELD HOCKEY WIN TUESDAY

Tuesday, the Telstar girls faced the first ranked field hockey team of the western part of the state, Wells. The girls were nervous and with reason—they had a tough team to face, but butterflies vanished when the game began. For most of the game, the ball was near the Wells goal. The final tally showed Telstar the victor, 3-0.

With one minute left to go in the first half, Manya Dombkowski shot an unassisted goal. At the end of the first half, the score was 1-0. The second half of the game, the girls turned it on and were really aggressive. Telstar scored again, but no one knows for sure who scored. It was either Pam Bean, who slid right into the goal cage with the ball, or Manya Dombkowski.

The girls defense was scintillating, and Brenda Mills made one save to deny Wells a goal.

With 10 seconds to go in the game, Pam Bean scored again to assure the victory. Amid the hugs, shouts and joy, the girls hugged each other with indescribable happiness. So the girls won again, crushing Wells 3-0.

This Thursday afternoon, they play third ranked Dirigo for the Western Division championship. Whoever wins between Dirigo and Telstar will be the Western Maine Champs, and will go to Orono on Saturday to determine the State Champions of Field Hockey.

STUDENT SOLUBILITY? Not Really! Mr. Kersey's two chemistry divisions at Telstar decided to determine the density of some human bodies. Betsy Brown and Gary Carter became the "bodies." Picture #1 shows members of the class filling a 55 gallon drum with water. In #2 Betsy is being weighed by leadfoot Rick Chase and Alan Dunham. In goes Gary in #3 and look at the water pour out of the overflow pipe. In the fourth picture, Betsy is about to plunge her head under so that she'll be completely immersed. By determining the amount of water that is displaced we can calculate the volume of their bodies (the water displaced is equal to their volume). Use the formula: Density=weight/volume and presto—determining densities can be an enjoyable chemistry experience not quickly forgotten!

We Plug The Draft Holes and You Save

Up To 35-40% On Fuel Consumption

ANY HOME, new or old, can be fully insulated to cut your costs. Our trained crew blows superior Cellulose insulation in attic and walls without muss or fuss.... without disturbing your household routine. The fuel savings pay for the job.

Drafty rooms, snow melting from your roof, walls that are cold to the touch, all mean escaping heat and excessively high fuel bills. Insulation blown into your walls and ceilings stops all this. Cuts fuel bills as much as 50%. Keeps your home as much as 15% cooler in summer and lowers air conditioning costs.

Because Cellulose is an extremely light weight material that is blown in place under pneumatic pressure, it completely fills all areas. No voids are left. Cellulose flows around wires, pipes, and cross bracing to give complete and lasting thermal protection.

MOTORISTS MADE AWARE OF CHANGES IN VEHICLE LAWS

The Maine State Police advise motorists to be aware of changes in Maine law that may affect their operation of motor vehicles.

"As enacted by the 109th Legislature and now in effect are laws that will be enforced; thus, we feel citizens should be aware of them so they can begin voluntarily complying with them," said Allan H. Weeks, Chief of the Maine State Police.

Col. Weeks was referring to these new laws: Concerning the Expiration of Motor Vehicle Inspection Stickers (Title 29 Maine Revised Statutes Annotated section 2123), To Allow Limited operation of an Unregistered Motor Vehicle (29 MRSA section 102), Relating to Sawdust and Shavings being Transported on Public Ways (29 MRSA sec. 1752), To Require Red Reflectors on Certain Long Logs hauled at Night (29 MRSA sec. 1755) and amending the Laws Relating to Load Binding (29 MRSA sec. 1701).

The Maine State Police Chief said a person operating a motor vehicle with an expired inspection sticker during the first month after it expired shall be issued a warning and not a summons. However, if the person does not within two business days get the vehicle inspected, Maine law states the person "shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not more than 90 days or both."

State law now allows—with a permit—the operation of an unregistered motor vehicle only to the owner's residence or to an office of the Motor Vehicle Division, State Department, for the purpose of registering the vehicle. Any full time state, county, or municipal police officer or certain employees of the Motor Vehicle Division may issue the permit, provided the previous registration on the vehicle has expired within 30 days.

The permit is valid for only three consecutive days, including date of issuance. In addition, any person whose vehicle is operated when the registration has expired within 30 days and does not have a permit "shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100."

Maine roads, the law now says: "When the load consists of sawdust, shavings or wood chips, and a reasonable effort has been made to completely cover such load, minor amounts of such load which are blown from the vehicle while in transit shall not constitute a violation."

Col. Weeks said red reflectors "of sufficient size, properly located and maintained so as to reflect— for at least 200 feet" are now required on logs that project more than five feet from the rear of the vehicle. The reflector is to be displayed on the end of the log projecting furthest to the rear during the hours when headlights are required by any vehicle approaching from the rear.

In regards to load binding, Col. Weeks said firewood, pulpwood or bolts piled in tiers from the front to the rear of the body of a vehicle require a strip of wood or metal three inches thick to be used to securely fasten the load to the platform of the vehicle with the load being pitched towards the center. The three-inch strip may be substituted by two chains, wire rope, steel cables or web straps, or any combination that are held firmly in place and properly spaced to secure the load.

If the height of a load of long logs is greater than eight feet, it must be bound by three chains and binders or three wire ropes or three steel cables, or three polyester or nylon web straps, or any combination. If the height is less than eight feet and more than 30 inches, it must be bound by two chains and binders or two wire ropes or two steel cables, or two polyester or nylon straps, or any combination.

According to Maine law, these chains, wire ropes, or steel cables "shall be made of not less than 3/8 of an inch wire, and the web straps shall have a working strength of not less than 12,000 pounds each. A loss of 25% or more of the width or 25% of the thickness across 1/2 the width at any point shall render such web straps as insufficient. These chains and binders, wire ropes, steel cables or web straps shall be held firmly in place and properly spaced to secure the load."

ALBANY HUNT'S CORNER AND VICINITY

Kathy Bennett, Corres.

Halloween of 1977 dawned with plenty of frost on the pumpkins! My three boys are anxious to go trick or treating. Today is an extra special day for Danny as it is his birthday.

Alberta White and grand-daughter, Meredith, called on The Albert McAllisters one afternoon last week.

Jane Wardwell has been enjoying a weeks vacation at home here in Albany.

Barbara Inman and Terry Howard have been doing some papering for Edith Stearns.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pevear and her mother, Thirza Gibson, were Saturday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Inman. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Barton and children were Saturday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Barton.

Franklin and Margaret Barton returned home last Tuesday evening after spending a week in Machias with Mrs. Jan Jacobs and family. While there Franklin did a lot of trapping and con hunting.

Callers here at K-D's Acres this last week have been, Flo Cairns, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nutting, Mrs. L. G. Twichell, Mrs. Kay Billings and Mrs. Dorothea Hooper. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Thibault and children called on us. Doug and Carol are very dear friends who live in Rhode Island. Sunday night we had a family birthday party for Danny at my folks in Bryant Pond.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The Oct. 25 meeting of the Mundt-Allen Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, was opened without form by President Arlene Bean. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read. Adeline Dexter was reported on the sick list. The luncheon for the Rotary Club are to be put on Nov. 1, 8, 22, and 29. The Lions Club suppers are on the 1st and 29th. The vending machine for the soft drinks has been installed. It will be a big help on game party nights.

President Arlene Bean went to the Ethel Bisbee School and the 6th grade at Crescent Park and gave a talk on Halloween safety. She spoke on the four rules to make a "Sad Sack a Happy Jack"—to see, be seen, use a flashlight (not a candle) and have Mom or Dad check your treats. Also to go only to those places where you are known.

The next meeting is the Veterans Day supper meeting on Nov. 8 at 6:30 at the Legion Hall. Bring a salad.

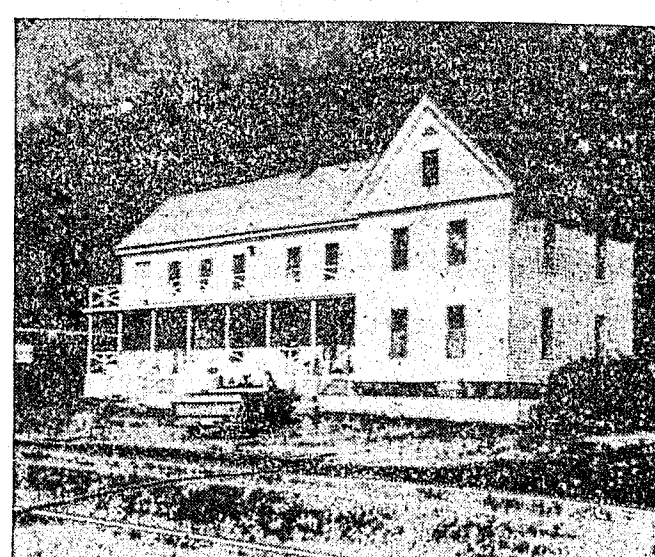

Nov. 15 is the County Council meeting at Bethel.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks to the Bethel Senior Citizens for their generous Sunshine Box, and to the Rumford Grange, Milmokwa Temple, Bethel Methodist Church, and to my many friends who have remembered me this summer with gifts, flowers, cards and calls. I have enjoyed them all very much.

Rena Abbott

ANNOUNCE NEW

SKI TOURING DIRECTOR

AT SUNDAY RIVER INN

Steve and Peggy Wight, owners and operators of Sunday River Inn Ski Touring Center have announced the appointment of Steve Rhodes of Springfield, Maine, as Ski Touring Director for the coming season. Rhodes replaces David Coleman who held the position for the past four winters and was largely responsible for the reputation of the touring center as one of the best operations of its type in New England. David and his wife, Terry, their daughter, Sarah, and their new son, Samuel, have decided to make their permanent home in Vermont where he has year round employment with an engineering surveying company.

Steve Rhodes brings to the touring center a strong background in skiing, outdoor education, retail sales, and first aid skills.

A 1976 graduate of Bates College with a degree in biology, he spent his summer vacations as a counselor or director of canoeing, hiking, backpacking, sailing, kayaking, and rockclimbing at Maine Wilderness Canoe Basin, the Springfield, Maine outfitting camp operated by Carl Selin. During the past two winters he has served as a cross country and alpine ski instructor at Lost Valley Ski Area in Auburn and has worked in the rental and retail shop there as well. This fall he has served as an instructor in an outdoor education program in Massachusetts and has worked on the maintenance crew at Hurricane Island Outward Bound School off the coast of Rockland.

Steve will be at the touring center after Nov. 15. He is looking forward to meeting all the folks who have enjoyed ski touring at Sunday River over the past five years as well as all those young and old who will discover the exciting, healthful sport for the first time this winter.
